

Blue Evaluation

(Sung to the tune of Elvis Presley's "Blue Christmas")

I'll have a blue, evaluation, without you,
Won't know how to do, evaluation, without you,
If you can't, plan with me, then there's no diversity,
It won't be the same, without some C-R-E*

How do we know, what is "valid", without you?
How do we know, what is "worthy", without you?
If you're not here with me, then there's no equity,
It won't be the same, I think you will agree.

But when those forms of exclusion, start falling,
That's when a new, new inclusion, starts calling,
We'll be doin' all right, and get better insights,
When I do a new, new eval with you.
